St. Nectan's Coffee Shop is open from 10am to midday on Tuesdays and Fridays in the Church Rooms, Hartland.

Morning Prayer will be available to watch on the Mission Community Facebook Group from Sunday (private group, so ask to join) and our website (hartlandcoastchurches.org), where you will find it under "services to view online".

Hartland Coast Mission Community Council meets again on January 31st at 10am on Zoom.

News from the Parishes. A few photos of Christmas activities around the parishes are available to view on the Mission Community website – hartlandcoastchurches.org – under the events tab.

Website. Please send me any photos you have of people - PCC members, regular groups, members of your congregations - so I can post them on the website to add a little more colour. Also, if you have any photos of your church buildings (internal or external shots) which are not already featured on the site, I would be happy to receive them, as I should like to replace some of the text on the welcome page with graphics.

Thank you.

Tricia

Some powerful questions in the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity material, I hope you've had chance to have a look – I find the photos as striking as the words. WPCU-2022-English-A5-1.pdf.pagespeed.ce.c2Ohs37kOX.pdf (ctbi.org.uk)

I'm including a Global and Local question to consider from the selection included. For our Mission Community, consider how many of the Chapels have been forced to close through reduction in numbers, including Alwington and Hartland, and those able to sustain leadership roles. How can we reach out to each other and discover a way forward together as disciples of Jesus Christ?

- Local: Within your worship as a local Christian community what are the barriers you face to greater unity and how might they be overcome?
- Global: This material was being prepared as violence once more raged in Jerusalem and Gaza. How can the worldwide Christian community best support those Christians who share this contested place to be light in its darkness, transformers of fear, agents of peace?

DAILY HOPE is a Free Phone Line with Hymns, Reflections and Prayers. It is run by the Church of England and offers music, prayers and reflections as well as full worship services from the Church of England at the end of a telephone line.

The Daily Hope phone line is available 24 hours a day on 0800 804 8044

COMPLINE. With the resumption of services following our previous pattern, for the most part, it has been decided to stop the weekly phone service of Compline. Should the situation change again, or should demand prove pressing, it will be easy to reinstate it.

Mission Community Choir. The choir has started to rehearse regularly again, so if anyone would be interested in joining us, please get in touch with Stella Draycott (stellahdraycott@btinternet.com), or let Tricia know.
